Did you know that, as an IDIA faculty affiliate, you are eligible to:

1. Participate in the National Artificial Intelligence (AI) Innovation Symposium that seeks to stimulate research collaborations and University Affiliated Research Centers (UARCs) in support of the National Artificial Intelligence (AI) Innovation Program.
2. Apply for the CCI Spring 2023 Cybersecurity Paid Internship Program. Last year through this program, 35 out of the 41 interns received a full-time job offer or a follow-on internship.
3. Be a Mason Ambassador and receive support for your professional development.
4. Take advantage of the Summer Incubator Program to enable discovery by bringing together data scientists and population scientists and highly motivated students for a Summer Research Visit.
5. Submit papers for the National Engineering Technology Symposium (GVSETS) that is partnering with industry, government, and academia to meet the Army's transformational needs.
6. Sign up for the AI Innovation Symposium to advance fields as diverse as finance, education, built infrastructure, science, economics, agriculture, health, transportation, entertainment, national security, and social justice.
7. Participate in the NSF Convergence Accelerator 2022 Joint NSF/DOD Phases 1 and 2 for Track G: Securely Operating Through this Request for Information (RFI) is to solicit from the larger national academic ecosystem information relevant to accelerate the Intelligence Community's (IC) adoption of AI technologies.
8. Participate in the Virginia Department of Veterans Services grant on Prospective Change in Preclinical MRI Markers of ADRD Risk and Brain Aging by Race, Socioeconomic Status, and Sex.
9. Submit applications for the MDI National Science Foundation (NSF) grant on Prospective Change in Preclinical MRI Markers of ADRD Risk and Brain Aging by Race, Socioeconomic Status, and Sex.
